

to Jamaica to China. And they discovered two of their Chinese cousins living in Tampa!
Tickets $15, Students/seniors $12

Reception

Sept. 9, 6:00 pm – 6:45pm
 Story Days Tampa Bay/Your Real Stories Fall Reception with special guest Paula Madison, at the Museum of Fine Arts.
Tickets $50 (includes film ticket) findingsamuellowestpete.eventbrite.com

that expectation, perspective, and judgment play in our understanding of each other. Come along on everyman's unfinished journey home. $10

Thornhill Digital Storytelling: 50 Steps to Documentary Success Seminar

Sept. 11, 11:00 – 1:00
 USF Zimmerman School of Advertising and Mass Communications
 4202 East Fowler Ave., Tampa

Take Me Home

Sept. 11, 7:00 pm
 The Studio@620
 620 First Ave. S., St. Petersburg
Tickets $20, Students/seniors $15

Meet You at The Chattaway Restaurant for Reggae and Stories

Sept. 11, 8:00 pm
 358 22nd Ave. S., St. Petersburg

Bicycle Stories

Sept. 12, 10:00 am – noon and 3:00-5:00 pm
 sponsored by Shift StPete
 1006 Central Ave., St. Petersburg
 The public is invited to share personal bicycle stories that could be about your first bike, learning to ride, your favorite bike trip or finding love on a tandem. Camille Soleil and Dawn Rowland of WheelyAlive will be coordinators for two wheely enlightening and fun sessions!

The Stuff of Stories

A Writer's Workshop
Sept. 12, 10:00 am – 1:00 pm
 The Studio@620
 620 First Ave. S., St Petersburg
 Join us for "The Stuff of Our Stories"—a grown-up "show and tell" event with a twist! Bring a cherished item (or a photo of it). Personal historian Paula Stahel will show you how much fun it is to capture and share the stories, and how one memory leads to a hundred more! Tickets $10

Take Me Home

Sept. 12, 3:00 pm
 The Studio@620
 620 First Ave. S., St Petersburg
Tickets $20, Students/seniors $15

I Remember the Days...

Dance and Storytelling
Sept. 12, 3:30 pm
 Choreographer Vanessa Vargas
 Museum of Fine Arts
 255 Beach Dr. NE, St. Petersburg
 Volim Te – a story about loss.
 Margo – the story about her grandmother's Alzheimer's disease.

From the Inside to You

Prisoners' Stories
Sept. 12, 5:00 pm
 Dr. Carter G. Woodson African American Museum
 2240 9th Ave. S., St. Petersburg

I Remember the Days...

Dance and Storytelling
Sept. 12, 6:00 pm
 Choreographer Vanessa Vargas
 Dr. Carter G. Woodson African American Museum
 2240 9th Ave. S., St. Petersburg
 Volim Te – a story about loss.
 Margo – the story about her grandmother's Alzheimer's disease.

Civil Rights Stories and Candle Light Vigil

Sept. 12, 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm
 in collaboration with the Dr. Carter G. Woodson African American History Museum and the Florida Holocaust Museum at the Woodson
 2240 9th Ave. S., St. Petersburg

Check www.yourrealstories.org for schedule additions and changes
a Your Real Stories production

FLORIDA HOLOCAUST MUSEUM
 POYNTER INSTITUTE FOR MEDIA STUDIES
 ST. PETERSBURG LIBRARIES
 MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS
 THE CHATTAWAY RESTAURANT
 WHEELY ALIVE
 USF WORLD
 WFLA NEWS CHANNEL 8

My Soul Looks Back: The Decades of Day Work

Photographic Exhibit
Sept. 8–18
Tues. – Fri., noon – 5:00 pm
 In association with The Dr. Carter G. Woodson African American Museum
 2240 9th Ave. S., St. Petersburg
 Experience the archival photos representing the real life institution of domestic day work from the 1930's through the 1990's. Each photo offers a glimpse into the often strained and sometimes strong family bonds that grew up between black maids and their white employers.

Opening Reception

Sept. 8, 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm
 Come and meet the storytellers

"This Light of Ours: Activist Photographers of the Civil Rights Movement"

Civil Rights Exhibit
Sept. 8 – December 1
Open Daily 10:00 am – 5:00 pm
 Florida Holocaust Museum
 55 5th Ave. S., St. Petersburg

Finding Samuel Lowe: From Harlem to China

A Documentary
Sept. 9, 7:00 pm
 Museum of Fine Arts, Marly Room
 255 Beach Drive, St Petersburg
 Film screening, book signing and author's discussion. Filmmaker and former NBC Universal Executive, Paula Madison will answer questions about how she and her two brothers – all Jamaican-Americans – found their Chinese relatives. The journey spans from Toronto

Thornhill Digital Storytelling: 50 Steps to Documentary

Success Seminar
Sept. 10, 1:00 pm – 3:30 pm
 Poynter Institute for Media Studies Amphitheatre
 801 Third St. S., St. Petersburg
 Digital media expert, Andrew W. Thornhill, walks participants through developing a plan for getting the next great documentary, book or theatre blockbuster funded.

Finding Samuel Lowe: From Harlem to China

A Documentary
Sept. 10
Film Screening, 7:00 pm
Reception at 5:30 pm (free)
 USF School of Music Concert Hall
 3755 West Holly Drive, Tampa
 Story Days welcomes Author/ Filmmaker Paula Williams Madison for a special a special film screening, discussion and book signing event with members of the Lowe family.
Tickets $15, Students/seniors $12
findingsamuellowetampa.eventbrite.com

Take Me Home

Preview
Sept. 10, 7:00 pm
 The Studio@620
 620 First Ave. S., St Petersburg
 What happens when spirits of past lives come to call in our modern world? Witness the blurring of lines between what is seen and what is known. Consider the roles

CO-SPONSORS

STORY DAYS PARTNERS

THE STUDIO@620
 USF ST. PETERSBURG
 AMERICAN STAGE
 DR. CARTER G. WOODSON AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY MUSEUM